In recent weeks your local Beat Managers have been carrying out Pop Up Engagement Surgeries across the county. These events are there to give members of the public the opportunity to speak to an officer and to discuss any local issues/concerns and ask questions. These have been really successful in engaging the community.

If you're interested in coming along to a future Pop Up Engagement Surgery, please see the latest dates listed on our 'NORTH NORFOLK POLICE' Facebook page in the 'Events' section.

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

Engagement surgeries have now restarted with the first one being held on Fakenham Market which was well attended. The intention is to do this once a month from now on as well as other more localised ones across the patch at organised events. Keep your eyes open for a venue near you. The PCC will be in Fakenham on 19th August at our stall on the Thursday market. Come along, say hello and have your say on his survey of what the constabulary should be focussing on from April next year.

PC Dawson has also had some success in reducing the anti-social behaviour of youths climbing on roofs with no reports coming in for the last month. With the schools now finished for the summer holidays more time will be spent in the usual hotspots in Fakenham and the surrounding villages.

CURRENT NEIGHBOURHOOD PRIORITIES

- Tackling speeding in the parishes of Fulmodeston, Barney and in Melton Constable.
- Deterring and dealing with ASB over the summer months.
